Consequences and General Rules Chat Rules

As a Staff Member you should be aware of the rules for language, unnecessary capitalization, racism and slander, disrespect, spam, and advertising. This multiple paragraph document will inform you in both writing (depth) and in a picture (shortened) to assure that you know what to do in the event of an issue in which it probably will arise. Please refer to this page in the need of assistance prior to asking in chat.

For usage of unnecessary capitalization with a seventy percentile or more of full capitalization usage in which it isn't a short message like: "OK", "NP", "etc", you must give a total of two warnings to the user. First warning will be a verbally issued warning, and second warning will be a Kick. Additional offenses will turn into Mutes starting at 5 minutes, and in increments doubling. After five additional warnings, simply permanently mute the offender.

For foul language, your guidelines are exactly the same. However in this scenario you should disregard or not count words like "damn", "crap", "etc". However words with much vulgar wording such as "shit", "fuck", "etc" should have offense taken. Any user altering a phrase with spacing, commas, periods, etc... should have double offense after first kick.

Racism and Slander is once again very similar to capitalization with the exception that you shouldn't issue a verbal warning to the user. This case would be Kick, Mute at increments doubling and after a one hour mute... simply jail/mute them this selection is at your discretion and varies on your permission.

Disrespect will be the exact same as capitalization and foul language. Please refer to that document as for a guide on what to do. Generally you will simply issue a first warning as a Kick, then to a Mute. If multiple offenses stack upon each other you should consider disregarding any verbal warning or should move up a tier on punishment.

Spam will be warned out of two, and would be simply Kick then additionally Mute for up to 1 hour. Multiple offenses will result in further action, but regard the general agreement on offense punishments. If a case of multiple offenders (spamming) please initiate a ban from the Hub server, if you cannot do this please record multiple names so an Administrator/Global Staff member may do this. This is automated, but if necessary you have authorization to punish.

Advertising is by no means allowed, and although our filters aim to prevent it we can't always assure it will work. We authorize you to take action if you see advertising from Social Spy, Messaging, or via Chat. This punishment is a ban, if you lack permissions to do such, please contact an Administrator or higher via Staff Chat.

Caps	(2) warnings	Kick	Mute up to 1 hr
Language	(2) warnings	Kick	Mute up to 1 hr
Racism/Slander	(2) warnings	Kick	Mute 1hr <> ban
Disrespect	(2) warnings	Kick	Mute 2hr <> ban
Spam	Auto	Kick	Mute up to 1hr
Advertising	Auto	-	Ban from Hub

PvP Movement

For hacking related crimes, we have a very strict implementation. We do try to catch hackers via our systems, which is why you may get notifications from a system warning you of a potentially offending player. Do not judge by this system unless you see it yourself, and always account for lag. Prior to putting a Ban Request or Banning (if proper permission is granted) please consider the players Ping (via the TAB list). If the ping is above 500ms, do consider highly that it is their connection.

Kill Aura, Speed, No Slow, Fast Eat, and any type of Aimbot must have Recordings attached otherwise if the user applies and no proof is found, they will be unbanned and the potential of you being punished

As for Multi Aura, Guide/Fly, and Rapid Bow should automatically be detected by our systems, in the event where you encounter a flaw in systems. Please provide proof via Image/Video and ban.

For Teaming (3+) on KitPvP, while this does detect automatically, if necessary you should be informed that the punishments are Tempban, 45 minute, 2 hours, 5 hours, then a ban. You have authorize permission if you encounter this, and our system didn't detect.

Roles in Server

Global Network Staff

Helpers have the job to assure players are satisfied, and to moderate chat. This includes Spamming, Advertising, Disrespect, etc. please follow offense guideline listed on Page numbers 2-3. Respond to Griefs, however don't be afraid to step beyond your job and assist on something as long as you can get in contact with someone that can. Your basic role is to keep chat clean, and while you lack teleport permissions you can record/screenshot griefs to spawns/public buildings. You will be mostly helping players. In the case of a grief

WakenMC Staff Rules/Guidelines

you should immediately report it to the Staff Chat or a qualified Administrator/user with a rank to ban.

Moderators work hand and hand with Helpers, and you will act as a Helper when one isn't available or one is busy working with a player. You should report bugs, help players more (because of the additional commands). Additionally you will be granted /v and /fly, you must have video capture software aside from an iPhone/iPad at hand. Reimbursement for a cost can be justified via chat, but please use free software.

Administrators work hand and hand with Moderators, but you have much more access at this point. To be an Administrator, you must be able to multi-task and go between conversations promptly. You will be the go-to and overseer of server activities. Consider yourself a Overlord, in charge while the Owner is away. Of course without the permissions or availability to make executive decisions.

Factions & KitPvP Staff

Helpers have the responsibility of cleaning chat, keeping content clean, and reporting spam/noticeable flaws to Moderators/Admins. You should be organized, and write down errors/bugs players report to you. Additionally you should be available up to 6 hours a week, but don't be confined to that!

Moderators work hand and hand with Helpers to solve issues. You will be issuing bans that Helpers may have collected from reports, and you will be watching Helpers and assisting them. You must provide proof of bans along the hacking line. Screenshots if showing enough evidence will count.

Administrators work hand and hand with Moderators and oversee the Staff Team. They report flaws noticed within the Helpers and Moderators and promptly write down content. Even as an Admin, you should still provide proof for your bans.

Survival & Creative Staff

Helpers gain more responsibility here, aside from the general cleaning of chat, and keeping everything "G" rated. You should also watch for griefing, and write down offenders. Same with reports of crimes (with proof), and other bugs. You are allowed to record a bug if necessary, but do not do this multiple times. Demonstration for video is one thing, abusing it for self-benefit is another.

Moderators work hand and hand with Helpers and while Helpers gather grievers/offenders, Moderators approve the proof provided and ban the user following the guides on Pages 2-3. Moderators must be able to multi-task and go between topics promptly.

Administrators work hand and hand with Moderators to assure that the server is running smooth. As an Administrator you oversee Staff and notice the underachievers and overachievers, you assure staff are on for proper time and behavior is of importance.

Prison Staff

Helpers have the job of keeping chat clean, and finding/reporting bugs to proper Staff members. This means you must be organized, and have documents so you don't forget. You must also assure users get their ranks, and if any issues are encountered to contact the appropriate staff.

Moderators work hand and hand with Helpers to assure the server has no flaws. You should teleport to players in Vanish to assure that they are within standards.

Administrators oversee Moderators and Helpers, and still assist players. Any issues should be reported to Head-Admin or higher, and you should be able to Administrate up to 8-10 hours a week. You are not authorized to battle with other players.

Closing Remarks/Information

On behalf of WakenMC, I'd like to welcome you to the Staff team and thank you for reading this guide. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact a staff member via the Skype chat. Remember to provide proof for bans, and always report something even if you're not sure of the meaning/outcome. We won't call you stupid for reporting something ever!

Thats all.
